

July - 2015

FGM: higher risk during summer holiday period;

Jane Ellison writes to NHS partners about FGM summer vigilance

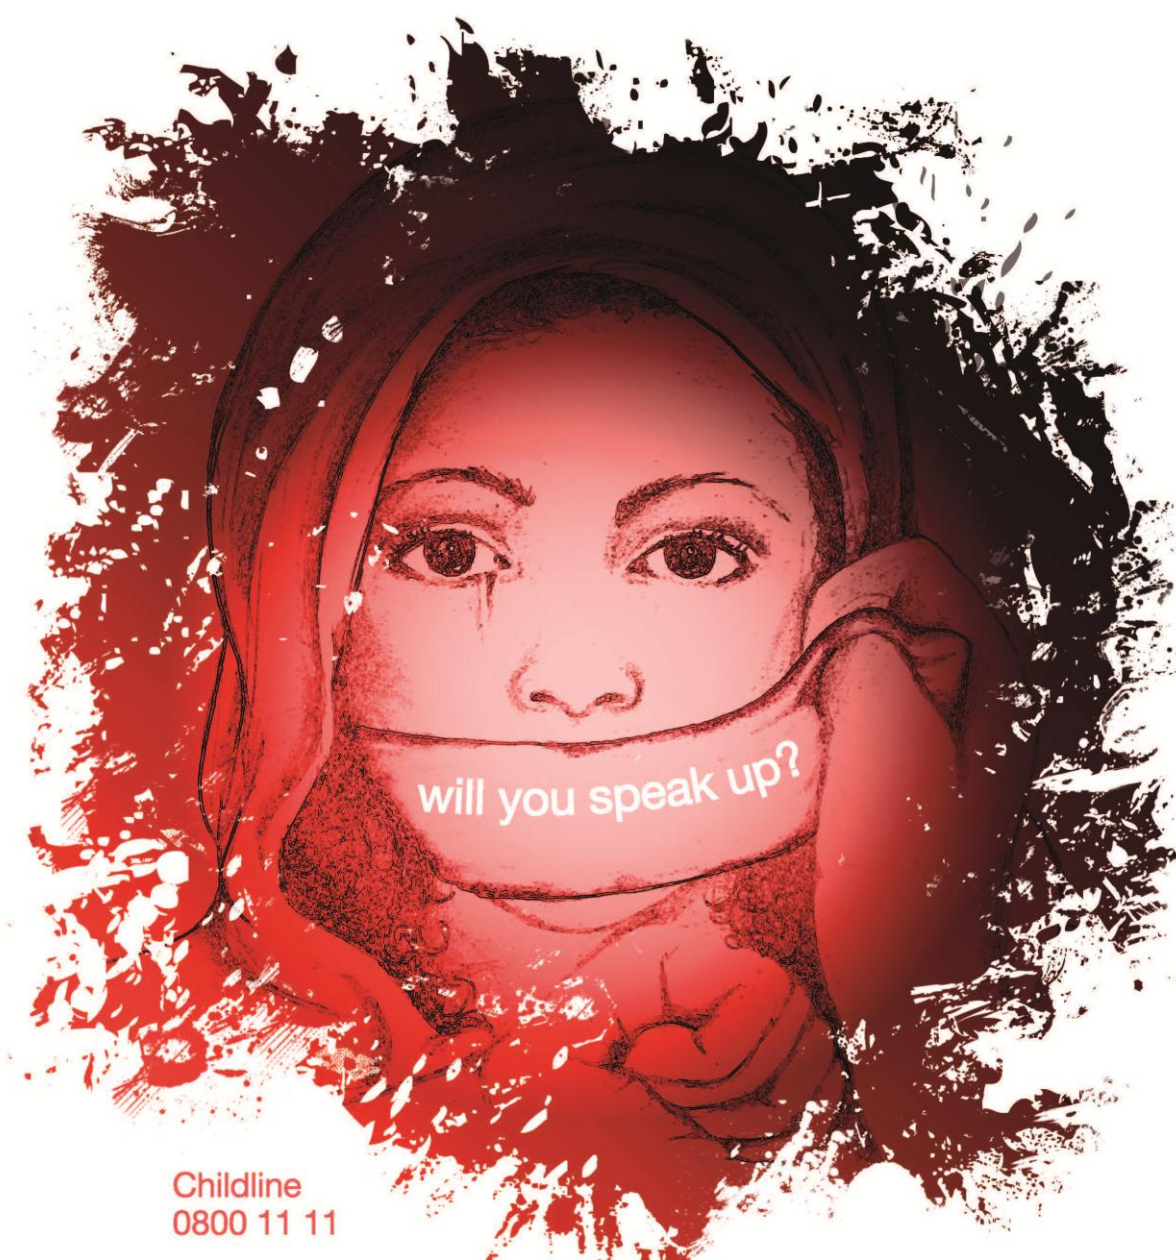

Warns of the need for increased vigilance over female genital mutilation in coming weeks and reminds staff of safeguarding responsibilities.

Please see link to the correspondence

Department of Health

Are you, or someone you know, at risk of being cut (FGM)?

Childline
0800 11 11

NSPCC
0800 028 3550
(FGM Helpline)

police 999

Oxfordshire
Multi-Agency
Safeguarding Hub
(MASH)
0845 050 7666

Oxford Rose Clinic, specialist clinic for FGM survivors
oxfordrose.clinic@nhs.net

Oxfordshire Domestic Abuse Helpline
0800 7310055

oxfordagainstcutting.org

Oxford Against Cutting Registered Charity Number 1161597

OxfordAgainstCutting
StopFemaleGenitalMutilation

Please click on the link below to downloadable version of this poster:

http://www.oscb.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/FGM_Summer_Poster.pdf